Surname:	Surname:
Forename:	Forename:
Date of Birth:	Date of Birth:
National Insurance number or Asylum Support Reference Number (previously NASS):	National Insurance number or Asylum Support Reference Number (previously NASS):

Step 3: Your child's eligibility- parents/carers to complete

To be completed with assistance from your chosen provider(s). Please tick which entitlement you will be using. If your child is two years old and eligible for both entitlements, you should use the entitlement for children from 2 years old receiving some additional forms of support first.

- Entitlement for children from 2 years old in families receiving additional forms of support:
 - If parents/carers live in England and are in receipt of certain benefits,
 - If a child is looked after by a local authority, has an EHC plan, gets Disability Living Allowance or has left care under an adoption order, special guardianship order or a child arrangements order.
- Working parent entitlement for children from 9 months old.
- Universal entitlement for 3- and 4-year-olds.

Your provider could receive extra funding for your child if certain criteria are met, please opt in by ticking the below boxes if they apply to you or your child:

The Disability Access Fund (DAF) is used to help providers to make reasonable adjustments in their settings, either to support an individual child, or for the benefit of all children attending the setting.

Is your child entitled to the Disability Living Allowance? Ticking yes will enable your chosen provider (as noted in Step 5) to receive the DAF.

Yes No

Early Years Pupil Premium (EYPP) is paid to childcare providers to provide extra support for your child. EYPP can be used to improve teaching and learning facilities and resources to impact positively on your child's progress and development. Ticking yes to the questions may enable your chosen provider to receive the EYPP (as noted in Step 5).

Are you in receipt of Universal Credit?

Yes No

Is your child currently looked after by a local authority/have they ever been looked after by a local authority in England or Wales?

Yes No

Are you an asylum seeker receiving support under Part Six of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999?

Yes No

Step 4: Document check-provider to complete

Documentary proof of DOB Type (e.g. birth certificate, passport):
Document recorded by (name of staff member):
Date document recorded (dd/mm/yyyy):
Working parent eligibility code: (e.g. 12345678912)
2-year-old of families receiving additional support, eligibility reference number (ensure full letter/email has been seen)

Step 5: Setting and attendance details- parents/carers to complete

You need to agree and complete this declaration form with each setting your child attends for their funded entitlement in order to ensure that funding is paid fairly to each of them. Your provider should help you to complete this section.

Your child can attend a maximum of two settings in a single day and if your child attends more than one setting the local authority will distribute the funding appropriately between the settings.

Your child's attendance should be regular and no less than 85% of expected attendance on average.

Setting name:	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Total no. of hours per week	Total weekly charge	No. of weeks per year (e.g. 38,45,51)
Total funded entitlement hours attended per day							n/a
Total extra (chargeable) hours per day
Total daily hours attended

To fill in if your child attends more than one setting:

Total funded entitlement hours attended per day

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Total no. of hours per week
Setting name:
Setting name:

To note: the maximum number of funded hours your child can receive is:

- 1) for 2-year-olds in families receiving additional forms of support: 15 hours a week for 38 weeks of the year
- 2) for children aged from 9 months of eligible working parents: 15 hours a week for 38 weeks of the year (this will increase to 30 hours from September 2025). For 3 and 4 years old this can be combined with the below entitlement to a maximum of 30 hours.
- 3) for all 3 and 4YOs: 15 hours a week for 38 weeks of the year

If your child is splitting their funded entitlement across more than one setting, please nominate their main setting (for example, if you receive 30 hours working parent entitlement for 3- & 4-year-olds and were to fall out of eligibility, this would be the setting that you have nominated to receive your universal 15-hour entitlement at if your circumstances change)

Name of Setting:

Provider to complete:

Additional charges: Government funding is intended to deliver 15 or 30 hours a week of free, high quality, flexible early education and care. The 15 or 30 hours must be able to be accessed free of charge to parents; that is, there must not be any mandatory charges for parents in relation to the free hours.

Government funding is not intended to cover the costs of meals, other consumables, additional hours or additional services. Providers can charge for consumables, meals and snacks, extra activities and additional hours provided they are not mandatory charges or a condition of accessing a place.

The costs of chargeable extras should be published on provider websites or, where they do not have any website, on local authority Family Information Services. These should be clear, up-to-date and easily accessible to parents, to enable parents to make an informed choice of provider.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri	Total weekly charge

Nottingham City Council is collecting your data for the purposes of checking your eligibility for the free entitlements, Early Years Pupil Premium (EYPP) or Disability Access Fund (DAF), in accordance with its statutory functions under the Childcare Acts 2006 and 2016, and the School Standards and Framework Act 1998.

Data Protection

The Data Protection Act 2018 (the Act) puts in place certain safeguards regarding the use of personal data by organisations, including the Department for Education, local authorities, schools and other early education providers. The Act gives rights to those about whom data is held (known as data subjects), such as pupils, their parents and teachers. This includes:

- The right to know the types of data being held
- Why it is being held; and
- To whom it may be disclosed

Should you have any concerns relating to how your information or the information relating to your child/ren is being or will be used, please contact your provider Nottingham City Council. Please note that information about whether a child is in receipt of Disability Living Allowance is, under the Act, Special Category Data which should be handled appropriately. Providers are asked to pay particular note to advice from the Information Commissioner's Office on holding personal data including sensitive personal data available at: <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/uk-gdpr-guidance-and-resources/trainingvideos/handling-more-sensitive-information/>

Privacy Notice – Early Years Funding – Nottingham City Council

Who is the Data Controller?

Personal Information (personal data) will be processed by Nottingham City Council (NCC) for the purposes of Early Years Funding and Provision, either provided directly by you, or by the Early Years Provider. The Data Controller for the personal data that is processed by NCC for these purposes is NCC.

Why do we process personal data?

We will only process personal data when it is necessary and where we have a lawful reason to do so. Personal Data used in relation to Early Years funding will be used to allocate your child a place; to administer contracts between NCC and providers; dealing with complaints, non-compliance and safeguarding issues; working with OFSTED and other public bodies; and delivering training with providers.

What personal data will the Council process?

If you are a parent or a child, we will process: your name (and person with parental responsibility); address and contact details; date of birth; gender; financial information; details of childcare provision and national insurance number.

If you are a provider, we will process: your name; address and contact details.

We will also process 'special categories of information' about you when necessary, this includes information relating to your race or ethnicity; religious beliefs; and physical and mental health.

What is the legal basis for using your information?

The lawful basis for processing your information for these purposes is because it is necessary for the performance of a public task; under Article 6 1 (e)GDPR because it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation under Article 6 1 (c)GDPR to which NCC is subject; or because it is necessary for compliance with a contract to which the council is subject.

When we process 'special categories of personal data' we do so under the condition that it is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest. Article 9 2 (g) GDPR

Sometimes, we may also process information relating to criminal offences, we will do so because it is necessary for statutory reasons of substantial public interest for the prevention and detection of crime, the prevention of fraud, or for safeguarding children and other individuals at risk.

Who will NCC share my personal information with?

NCC will only share you information within the Council and with others when it is necessary and lawful to do so. We may also share it when we are obliged by law to do so.

To provide these services, the Council may share you information with: the childcare provider; Nottinghamshire County Council, Capita; East Midlands Shared Services (EMSS); Department of Work and Pensions (DWP); Department of Education (DfE); and the Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills (OFSTED).

Do I have to provide the information?

No, you are not obliged by statute to provide the information. However, if we were not able to process the information, we would not be able to provide these services.

How long will NCC keep the data for?

NCC will process the data for 6 years from the end of the provision or contract

What are my information rights?

You have the following rights under data protection legislation, the right to request:

1. A copy of your information;
2. That your information is corrected;
3. That your information is deleted (right to be forgotten);
4. That we restrict the processing of your information;
5. The portability of your data to another provider;
6. To object to processing your personal data; and
7. Rights relating to automated decision making including profiling.

Not all of these rights are applicable due to the lawful basis for processing the data. NCC can restrict these rights in certain circumstances. This mainly relates to the prevention of crime, prejudicing investigations and protecting others.

How can I find out more?

You can contact NCC's Data Protection Officer, Naomi Matthews to find out more, to exercise your rights or to complain about how your personal data has been handled. The contact details are: Information Compliance Team, Loxley House, Station Street, Nottingham, NG2 3NG or by email : data.protectionofficer@nottinghamcity.gov.uk A longer version of this notice is available on our website
